Human Trafficking - FREE 2 Hour CEU Event (Counselors, Social Workers, MFT)

Presented by Tonya Folks, Montgomery County Sheriff's Department

Tonya Folks, co-founded the national anti-sex trafficking organization BE FREE Dayton. During her tenure at the nonprofit she innovated education, outreach and research programming which resulted in numerous tip line calls and 35 rescues. She has personally trained thousands of adults and children across the country to recognize and report human trafficking. Ms. Folks was a member of the Attorney General's Sex Trafficking Research subcommittee for the state of Ohio.

In January 2016 Tonya joined the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office as the Human Trafficking Liaison. She works alongside the Human Trafficking Detective in various capacities including: victim advocate, research, public trainings, community relations and investigations.
