Middletown Announces Burger Week 2024 Lineup

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio – The City of Middletown is excited to announce the lineup for the 2nd Annual Burger Week! Local restaurants and establishments in Middletown and surrounding areas are coming together to offer a special burger to customers during the week of July 8-14.

“The City and its restaurants are ecstatic to show off their All-American burger culinary chops to Middletown and the region with Burger Week,” Jeri Lewis, Middletown Community Projects Coordinator, said. “Middletown is a hidden gem with restaurants and establishments of diverse cuisines. Our goal with Burger Week is to show off our hidden gem in a fun, delicious way.”

The different specials include everything from a Grippo’s Burger (with Grippo’s BBQ chips seasoning), a peanut butter and jelly burger in a crepe, a burger empanada, and the classic American cheeseburger.

The 15 participating businesses include: Angry Chicken House, Bourbon’s Kitchen, Brent’s Smokin’ Butts and Grill, Cancun Mexican Restaurant, Foodeez, Gold Star Chili, J&E Root Beer Stand, La Chona Margarita House, Merkel’s Tavern, Primo Italian Steakhouse, Starvin’ Marvin, The Cracked Pot, The Jug, The Swire Inn and Veracruz Mexican Restaurant.

Burgers Week is one of many events organized by the City of Middletown to promote community engagement, civic vitality and economic development. Among other events throughout the year are St. Patrick’s Day Parade and Celebration, Memorial Day Parade and Ceremony, Food Truck Fridays (throughout the summer), Movies in the Park (throughout the summer), Farmer’s Market, Arts in the Park, and much more.
