Middletown To Install Road Signs Honoring Vice President J.D. Vance

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio – The City of Middletown will be installing road signs at the entrances into the City, honoring Middletown's native son J.D. Vance.

The signs, which will read "Hometown of J.D. Vance, 50th Vice President of the United States of America," will be erected on January 21, 2025, the day after Vice President-elect Vance is sworn-in as a vice president, weather permitting. The sign locations are:

- On eastbound Central Ave. at Carmody Blvd. (entering from Madison Township)
- On southbound Ohio 4 at Germantown Road (near the airport)
- On westbound Ohio 73 at the city limits (entering from Franklin)
- On westbound Ohio 122 near Bob Evans (coming from I-75)
- On northbound Ohio 4 at the south city limits near Lafayette Avenue
- On northbound S. Main Street at the city limits (coming from Oxford-State Rd.)
- Cincinnati-Dayton Road northbound at the south city limits (coming from Monroe)

The City is planning a ribbon-cutting ceremony in the weeks following the inauguration at one of the sign locations. In addition to the signs, the City of Middletown recognized Vice President-elect Vance with a feature story in the Winter 2025 Middletown NOW Newsletter.

Vice President-elect Vance was born in Middletown and is a 2003 graduate of Middletown High School. He was elected as a United States Senator in 2022 and selected as President-elect Donald Trump's running mate in summer 2024. On Nov. 5, 2024, then-Sen. Vance was elected as the 50th Vice President of the United States.
